

The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum

The National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum is currently accepting applications for our summer internship program. We are currently working on digitizing our collection and thought that you may have a student that would be interested in working in baseball during the summer of 2017. For more about our online collection you can visit our website: <http://collection.baseballhall.org/>

We offer a variety of positions which include: Collections, Communications, Curatorial, Development, Digital Strategy, Education-Public Programs, Library Research, Library Manuscript Archives, Licensing & Sales, Multimedia, Photo Archives, and Special Events. Twenty internships will be awarded.

The chance to spend the summer in Cooperstown is every baseball fan's dream. For college students aspiring to land a once-in-a-lifetime summer experience in the National Baseball Hall of Fame's 2017 internship program.

The 2017 Frank and Peggy Steele Internship Program for Youth Leadership Development will provide students the chance to join the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum team in a 10-week paid summer internship, offering meaningful, hands-on training in numerous professional career fields for those who are chosen from the hundreds of applications received in Cooperstown each year.

All applications must be completed online at www.baseballhall.org/intern. In order to complete an application, candidates must attach a cover letter and resume to the online application. Only completed applications will be reviewed for acceptance into the program. Applications must be received no later than Jan. 31, 2017.

If you would like more information about the internship program, please contact Stephanie Hazzard by phone: (607) 547-0349 or by email: education@baseballhall.org.
