

Gagosian Gallery

The Gagosian Gallery library is looking for a current MLIS/MLS student to intern at its Madison Avenue location during the Fall of 2017.

The potential candidate must be able to commit to a minimum of two days a week.

The intern will primarily catalog books according to in-house standards, manage inventory of auction catalogs, and maintain an orderly library. The intern may also assist with special projects and general intern tasks as needed.

Candidates should be organized, analytical, reliable, and able to work independently. A background in modern and contemporary art is desirable, though not required.

The internship is paid and may be taken for school credit if necessary.

Please send resume and cover letter to Arielle Cohen at arielle@gagosian.com.

No phone calls, please.
